AT THE OPERA HOUSE
TOMORROW EVENING

BRAHMA'S MAGNIFICENT COMPOSITION. THE "SONG OF FATE" TO BE GIVEN.

The "Song of Fate," which is to be given at the Hawaiian Opera House tomorrow night for the benefit of the organ fund of St. Andrew's Cathedral is one of Johannes Brahms' masterpieces. Those taking part are the best known and most popular of the local vocalists and instrumentalists. Gerard Barton, under whose direction it will be given has prepared the following synopsis of the composition:

In this composition the storm, the stress, the bitter anguish of earthly mortals is thrown into sharp and vivid contrast with the Nirvana—the perfect peace of the gods. Brahms has chosen E flat as his key. After a beautiful instrumental prelude of 28 bars in slow 4-4 time, the alto voices enter, pianissimo, singing "Ye dwell on pathways of light, through fields eternal, Spirits beyond the skies." The full chorus takes up the same phrase, still pianissimo. Passages of surpassing—almost unearthly—beauty succeed one another; while, throughout, an impersonality, a sense of aloofness pervades. The first part of the work ends in noble harmonies with the words, "And their vision celestial gazes serene on light everlasting."

Suddenly and absolutely the music changes its mood. In an instant it becomes warm, pulsating, human. Plunging into a rapid 4 rhythm, the voices enter in an ugly, crooked, yet oddly fascinating phrase, singing "To us 'tis not given to find repose here on earth." A sense of bitter hopelessness prevails. An immensely striking scene is introduced on the words, "Like spray of the cataract recklessly plunging." Again the crooked theme is heard, wrought into a short fugato passage; again it recurs in its original form. Gradually the cry of anguish diminishes, and on the words, "to doubt and darkness below," with supreme pathos, it subsides utterly. A few more bars of fluttering agitation—gradually growing fainter and fainter—and the struggle is over. It is death.

All at once, almost imperceptibly, without forewarning, the original phrase of the entire work comes stealing deliciously on the ear; this time in the key of C. The surge of struggling humanity has spent itself—merciful death has intervened. The human has achieved Nirvana. This final instrumental coda brings Brahms' very beautiful and interesting work to an exquisite end.

OFF FOR THE VOLCANO.
The steamer Kinau left yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock for Hilo with a large crowd of passengers who are going to the volcano. The vessel took Japanese to Mahukona and Kihel, the Japs having arrived on the S. S. Mongolia. The Kinau will return in time to sail tomorrow on her regular run to Hilo and way ports.

DOLE RETURNS.
Attorney C. S. Dole, who was injured by a fall from his horse, returned from the mainland on the Korea, fully recovered. The accident to him was very severe and his life was almost despaired of for a time, and he is receiving the congratulations of many friends on the restoration of his health. Dole is a nephew of the former governor and a bright and popular young attorney. He has opened law offices in the Stangenwald building.

WOULD NOT MEET ON SUNDAY.
After the adjournment of the House on Saturday, the County Aet Joint committee held a meeting in the Senate chamber. It was proposed that the committee should hold a meeting on Sunday afternoon but this was opposed by Carl Smith of Hilo on the ground that law-makers should not be law-breakers. The proposition therefore failed. The committee will meet on Monday night at 7:30 in the Senate chamber and every night thereafter at the same hour until it is ready to report.

FUNERAL OF LOUIS ADLER.
There was a large attendance at the funeral of the late Louis Adler, which took place from the German Lutheran Church yesterday afternoon. Rev. W. Felmy conducted the services there, while the Odd Fellows held their rites at Nunam cemetery. Albin F. Clark officiating as chaplain. The G. A. R. and the I. O. O. F. were evenly represented in the flat of pall-bearers. Flowers were liberally contributed.

MAUI APPROPRIATIONS.
WAILUKU, February 24.—Attorney D. H. Case leaves for Honolulu by tonight's Kinau, on business, and incidentally to look into the Maui appropriations. On his last visit he was practically assured by Governor Carter that all the Maui appropriations would be spent before June 30th, but there is no sign yet of any other than the Wailuku jail and fire station. Mr. Case will interview the governor, as well as the representative from Wailuku with reference to these matters, with a view to hurrying things along. The road to Iao valley is still in the same old way.

COLD FEET.
You have cold feet because your blood does not circulate freely, which is due to the weak condition of the nervous system. Dr. Miles' Nervine will give strength and force to the nerves, stimulate and equalize the circulation, and your extremities will have the same warmth as other parts of the body. At the same time improve your general health. If first bottle is not beneficial, you get your money back.

KOHALA SUGAR COMPANY

The following is the report of Manager E. E. Oding of Kohala Sugar Company presented at the annual meeting this morning.

Kohala, Hawaii, February 9, 1906.
To the President and Directors of the Kohala Sugar Company.
Gentlemen:—I herewith present the following report for the year ending December 31, 1904:

CROP OF 1904.

The return from this crop was 3,444,625 tons of sugar which is slightly in excess of the yield as estimated in the annual report for year 1903.

CROP OF 1905.

For this crop there are:
409 acres Plant Cane,
959 " Ratoon Cane.

Total 1,378 acres.

The yield is estimated at 3,600 Tons.

CROP OF 1906.

For this crop there are:
705 acres Plant Cane,
600 " Ratoon Cane.

Total 1,305 acres.

The principal variety of cane planted for Crop 1906 is Yellow Caledonia, and both plant and ratoons are in good condition.

LEAF HOPPER.

The enemies of this insect have multiplied so rapidly that at the present time you have little to fear from serious damage from this pest. Spiders, Grass Hoppers, Lady Birds, Earwigs and the Lace Wing Flies all of which prey upon the Leaf Hopper, have been noticed in the cane fields.

IMPROVEMENTS FOR 1905.

Those now contemplated are the purchase of a Hersey Sugar Dryer and also of a Traction Engine; cementing a 3,500,000 reservoir and the enlargement of present reservoir capacity.

EARNINGS.

The net profits for the year 1904 are shown in Treasurer's report and amount to $53,328.19.

MODEST DONOR
IS GIVEN THANKS

The following correspondence was received by the Star in the mail by the Mongolia.

February 8, 1906.

Chief Editor of the Star Honolulu.
Dear Sir: Will you please have the goodness to insert the enclosed matter in your paper. We have tried every means to discover the generous donor in order to thank him in person, but have failed up to this time. Hence to execute this intention, it is only through such medium as your publication.

Trusting in your kindness to accept our request, we remain, yours truly,
Soldiers' Family Relief Assn.

THE SOLDIERS' FAMILIES RELIEF ASSOCIATION.

Herewith we wish to express our hearty thanks for the cheque of seventy dollars received November 16, 1904 and donated for our cause. We have waited to be informed as to the donor up to this time, but failed. However we judge it is originally from Honolulu, according to the stamp of the post office. The address or addresses please should rest assured that the amount will be applied most effectively to proper cases.

With renewed thanks for humanity as whole.

MAGOON STATES HIS CASE.

EDITOR HAWAIIAN STAR: The case of Dee vs. Smith about which so much is now appearing in the press, has been decided by the Supreme Court and the decision is the law of the case, and there is no further appeal.

This case has been made the vehicle for an unjust and malicious attack upon me.
Mr. Hustace had paid into court one third of the judgment recovered against himself and two others, and was liable to pay the remainder of the judgment for, according to the peculiar nature of the case, he could not compel contribution from his co-defendants. It was believed that his co-defendants had a large amount of property which could not be reached by levy under execution, and so it became necessary to take special proceedings against them, if anything could be realized; this no one could do but the Kamalo Sugar Company and its attorney myself.

When Mr. Hustace came to me, with the consent of the Kamalo Sugar Co. at a pecuniary loss to myself, I was willing to do what I could to prevent this great injustice against Mr. Hustace when my efforts, through no fault of my own, were fruitless, I was compelled to attack a conveyance which Mr. Hustace had made without my sanction, approval or knowledge, and while I do not ordinarily indulge in strong language, the man who says that I advised this deed, is an infamous liar.

J. ALFRED MAGOON.
February 25, 1906.

The new pension commissioner declares that he will not write poetry. It would indeed be unfortunate if the necessity of rhyming, in order to hold a position under the government should be regarded as established by precedent.

Tom Lawson is now beginning to sympathize with the hard-working space writer, who has no copper mines to fall back on in case copy gives out. There is a strong suspicion that the new Mormon is taught in the endowment house that it is not sinful to deceive the United States government.

Dyspepsia of Women
ABSOLUTELY NEEDLESS AGONY

Caused by Uterine Disorders and Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

A great many women suffer with a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not seem to yield to ordinary treatment. While the symptoms seem to be similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines universally prescribed do not seem to restore the patient's normal condition.

Mrs. Pinkham claims that there is a kind of dyspepsia that is caused by a derangement of the female organs, and which, while it causes a disturbance similar to ordinary indigestion, cannot be relieved without a medicine which not only acts as a stomach tonic, but has peculiar uterine-tonic effects also.

As proof of this theory we call attention to the case of Mrs. Maggie Wright, Brooklyn, N. Y., who was completely cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after every thing else had failed. She writes:

"For two years I suffered with dyspepsia which so degenerated my entire system that I was unable to attend to my daily duties. I felt weak and nervous, and nothing that I ate tasted good and it caused a disturbance in my stomach. I tried different dyspepsia cures, but nothing seemed to help me. I was advised to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and was happily surprised to find that it acted like a tonic, and in a few days I began to enjoy and properly digest my food. My recovery was rapid, and in five weeks I was a well woman. I have recommended it to many suffering women."

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement, or has such a record of cures of female troubles, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

FUJIHARA

FujiHara, the murderer who escaped from Hilo jail some time ago, has been heard from in a letter to Ex-Sheriff Andrews of Hawaii, which probably gave that gentleman one of the surprises of his life. At least a letter bearing the signature of FujiHara and dated at Kobe, Japan, has been received by Andrews, according to Japanese contemporaries on the big island, and there is reason to believe that the escaped prisoner wrote the letter.

FujiHara's letter is very polite. He thanks the former sheriff, not only for kind and considerate treatment when he was in jail, but also for the opportunity given him to escape from durance vile. FujiHara says he is doing well in Japan, is enjoying good health and he hopes Andrews is well too.

KLOHANA ART LEAGUE.

The lecture of E. A. P. Newcomb on "Hats and Houses," under the auspices of the Kiohona Art League, was given Saturday evening in the makai hall pavilion of the Alexander Young Hotel before an audience which filled the hall. Mr. Newcomb's lecture was interesting throughout, and was illustrated by large colored sketches prepared by himself. Preceding the lecture, an excellent musical program was given, comprising well-rendered selections by Miss Werthmuller, the pianist; Mrs. L. Tenney Peck, as a vocal soloist and accompanist; Miss Ramus, the violinist, and Isaac Dillingham, the baritone.

The translation from the German into English of the "Alpine Rose," as sung by Mr. Dillingham, was made by George F. Davies. "Sadness," sung by Mrs. Peck, was a well-received composition by Mr. Newcomb.
